Happy New Year from CHS

We are going to be starting off the new year with the first in a series of monthly newsletters.

Each month we will feature information on what is happening here at CHS, and stories from our city's history.

The second installment of our quarterly Historical Dinner Club is Tuesday January 22nd.

Join us at Alana's Food and Wine for a night of food memories from the Jai Lai.

Reservations are limited and going fast please visit www.columbushistory.org for your place at the table.

or order now through Paypal

History Lesson: The Billy Ireland Cartoon Library & Museum

One of Columbus' most well hidden treasures is about to have a re-launch that should make it as well known locally as it is in cartooning circles. Originally founded in 1977 and housed in two rooms of the Ohio State... [\[Read More\]](#)

On February 13th we will open our new exhibit celebrating COSI's fiftieth anniversary. Learn about COSI's history and maybe see some of your old favorites from COSI's past again.

Coming up in January

The CHS gallery will be closed from January 20-February 13 for installation of the COSI 50th Anniversary exhibit.

Our office will remain open during installation.

Come see it before it is too late.

The last day for Columbus at Play is January 19th.
